Trinitarian Heritage

June 24, 1252: Foundation of Fail Convent in Scotland. The Trinitarians, who were known in Scotland as the "Red Friars" or "Maturines," settled in the territory of Barnweil, Scotland, under the patronage of Lord John de Graham, Lord of Tarbolton, on June 24, 1252. Just a century later, the friary was partially destroyed by fire in 1349 or 1359.

NEWS BRIEF

ADEAT Assembly 2023

On April 29 - 30, 2023, the ADEAT Annual Assembly was held in Naples at the Trinitarian House in Via Fontanelle al Trivio.

Fr. Rocco Cosi, the Provincial, Fr. Celestino Mbakha, the Superior and Gozzi Rosaria, Secretary of ADEAT organized the event perfectly well and welcomed the participants with kindness and affection, creating a family atmosphere.

The presence of the General of the Order, Fr. Luigi Buccarello, made the atmosphere more joyful, especially when, as a surprise, he had H.E. Monsignor Father Aldo Berardi, Apostolic Vicar of North Arabia, who knows ADEAT and its many charitable activities very well, made his presence through internet connection from his Vicariate. There were many speeches that covered abundant topics:

-Father Minister General, Fr. Luigi, with various images, photos and videos brought to life for those present the beautiful experience of the pilgrimage in the footsteps of the first redeemers, calling the entire Trinitarian family to commitment to persecuted Christians;
- the Provincial, Fr. Rocco Cosi and the spiritual father of ADEAT, Fr. Giovanni Savina illustrated other significant aspects of the “Pilgrimage” that they shared with those present. The Association’s treasurer, Rodolfo Del Genio, updated the list of contact persons for adoptions of children from Madagascar, who are: Fr. Pasquale Randriamahana S.R., Fr. Elysè Daniel N. D. Rajevo Harison, Fr. Louis Raj Porathur, and Fr. Marcello Papasely, a nun and two lay people.

India: Simple Professions

At the end of the Novitiate, Our Brothers Joyal V. Jose, Nysal Binoy and Alan Ouseph of St. Michael of the Saints Vice-Province (India), made their Simple Vows, at the Trinity House of Ashram Aranattukara, Thrissur, India.

Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

On June 4, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, the whole Church and the Trinitarian Family in particular had a look at the reality of God’s love and the mystery of salvation realized by the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit. Late Pope Benedict XVI explained this reality this way, “The strongest proof that we are made in the image of the Trinity is this: only love makes us happy, because we live in relationship to love and we live to be loved.”

A beautiful feast of the Trinity our brothers, Trinitarian sisters and also Trinitarian laity did the renewal of vows.

Italy: Feast of Blessed Anna Maria Taigi

The feast of Blessed Anna Maria Taigi was celebrated on June 9 in the Basilica of St. Chrysogonus where her body is placed, in communion with the entire Trinitarian family scattered throughout the world. The sanctity, of Anna Maria, was recognized for her married life; before her many married women had the honours of the altars, but either they were unmarried, or they were widows or religious, queens or princesses. At the Mass presided over by Fr. Venanzio Di Matteo a number of lay people were admitted to the Trinitarian Laity.

Assembly of Trinitarian Laity of Southern Spain.

From June 9 to 11, the Assembly of Trinitarian Laity of Southern Spain was held at our house in Villanueva de Arzobispo, Jaén, with the slogan “Reject Christ? Never” Three presentations were given on the figure of Blessed Mark Criado, persecuted Christians and Trinitarian Martyrs.

The topic of the unification of the two laity in Spain was also discussed, for which a positive vote was taken. The timetable is to hold the next General Assembly of the Laity of Spain to update the statutes and to present this unification at the next provincial chapter of the Trinitarians.

Finally, projects submitted to receive financial help from the Laity Redemption Fund were evaluated. Three projects, two of social aid and the third to help persecuted Christians through SIT.

SIT General: A young Christian man is convicted over a WhatsApp message in Pakistan.

The situation in Pakistan is getting worse day by day. Moreover, the persecution of Christians reaches social networks, the Internet and chat rooms. On this occasion, the persecution was carried out against a young man, Nouman Asghar, a 24-year-old Christian from the city of Bahawalpur, Punjab, who was sentenced this week to death for blasphemy by a Bahawalpur court of first instance.

The young man had been arrested in 2019 for violation of Article 295-c of the Penal Code, which punishes defamation of the Prophet Muhammad, because of an alleged blasphemy reached via WhatsApp. WhatsApp chat messages containing blasphemous drawings of the Prophet Muhammad were found on the cell phone of the youth and his friend Sunny Mushtaq, who was also detained.

The trial against the youth ended last January, but it took the Bahawalpur Magistrate Court district judge five months to deliver the verdict, which was made public on May 30.

The young man's family denies the charge. According to lawyers, Mushtaq and Asghar received a blasphemous cartoon on their smartphones. However, that drawing was sent to them by Bilal Ahmad, a Muslim youth, but the police took no action against Ahmad, who was the sender of the blasphemous image. "This is another example of the misuse of blasphemy laws," says attorney Anthony, calling on authorities to conduct a fair investigation into the case and announcing an appeal. Authorities continue to bypass the Christian community while Muslims are unfairly protected.

IN MEMORIAM

Prof. Nicola Calbi, Trinitarian Layman

Prof. Nicola Calbi passed away on May 25, 2023. He was born on January 25, 1934, an outstanding figure, a man in love with the Trinity, of great caliber, a great human, with intellectual and spiritual gifts. He worked hard to innovate the Trinitarian Secular Order, of which he was also president from the early 1980s until 2019, offering his whole self, body and soul, for the building of a mature and solid laity. Prof. Nicholas was a great gift, a valuable light and guide not only for the Laity but also for the whole Trinitarian family. We commend his soul to the infinite mercy of God. RIP

Fr. Giuseppe Solfizi

Fr. Joseph Solfizi, of St. John de Matha Province passed away on June 16, 2023. He was born in Cappadocia (AQ), on 12-03-1941. He began his novitiate in Cori on 29-09-1956, made his first profession in Cori on 30-09-1957, made his solemn profession in Rome on 29-09-1963 and was ordained a priest in Rome on 13-03-1965.

The funeral of Brother Fr. Giuseppe Solfizi, was celebrated on June 17 at 3 p.m. at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Tuff in Rocca di Papa. May the Holy Trinity, source of infinite mercy, receive him into the joy of Paradise. RIP

We ask you to apply the established suffrages for their souls.
