Rome: The General Council Meets Archbishop Antoine Audo

Taking advantage of his presence at the General Curia, the General Council met with Bishop Antoine Audo, Chaldean Bishop of Aleppo (Syria), on October 16, to know about the situation in Syria, where the Order supports various projects through the international SIT. Mgr. Antoine sincerely thanked the Council for the welcome and the whole Order for more than 7 years of fruitful collaboration with the Chaldean diocese of Aleppo. The guest expressed his acknowledgment by recalling some significant projects carried out by SIT International. They are: the reconstruction of schools with the payment of scholarships to Christians; the reconstruction of houses for 10 families in the city of Damascus; and finally, the food aid granted to almost 300 families in the city of Aleppo. In the following, Mgr. Antoine stressed the criticality of the situation in the Middle East.

Outside Syria, some countries like Lebanon are in deep crisis and poverty. He believes that one of the profound political problems of the Muslim world in general is the ability to enter modernity. This would mean accepting to live in a pluralist society, respecting individual freedoms. If on this, the Church has made a profound and historical journey with the Second Vatican Council, the following realities remain for Muslims new, which they perceive as a real threat to the Muslim faith. The Monsignor concluded his testimony, stressing the need to strengthen the presence in these territories, despite the difficulties of all kinds that are encountered there. Because the Lord calls us to this mission, which would not fail to support every action in favor of evangelization. The Minister General, Fr. Luigi Buccarello, reiterated the deep desire of the Order to continue its action in the perspective of our charism. On behalf of the Order, a donation of € 20,000 was given to Bishop Antoine, in aid of all our Christian brothers and sisters in distress. We hope that many of them will find in this gesture some help, but also an encouragement in such a difficult context.

Annual Conference of the Lay Trinitarians in Italy

Martyr Savina. The laity reflected on: "The Welcoming Woman: the vocation of women in the Church and society in the light of the life of Blessed Anna Maria Giannetti Taigi".

Four days that led them to reflect on the fundamental role and contribution that every woman can offer for the construction of a society that is more just and more attentive to the weak, the poor and the last. Also, the Holy Father, informed of the initiative, wanted to express his warm pleasure with a letter sent to the Secular Order of the Most Holy Trinity. The Trinitarian family of Rome gathered at the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie at Fornaci, for the feast of the Most Holy Redeemer at the end of the week of prayer dedicated to our brothers and sisters persecuted because of faith. A solemn Mass with Vespers was presided over by the Minister General, Father Luigi Buccarello.

It should be emphasized that this year the week of prayer for Christians persecuted by SIT International has found great enthusiasm in several communities around the world, despite all the difficulties caused by the Covid-19 health emergency.

Rome-Basilica of St. Chrysogonus

In the Basilica of St. Chrysogonus, the community of the General Curia and the community of the Fathers of St. Chrysogonus College together with other religious with all the faithful of the parish during the week celebrated daily Mass with vespers for the persecuted. One of the most important moments was the blessing of the statue of Our Lady of Arabia, by H.E. Mons. Antoine Audo Bishop of Aleppo (Syria). It is a gift from the youth of the parish of St. Areta of the Apostolic Vicariate of Northern Arabia. This statue placed in the chapel of the Most Holy Redeemer in the Basilica of St. Chrysogonus is a copy of the original preserved in Kuwait since 1948. Patron of the Christians of the Arabic Gulf, it is invoked for the protection and fidelity of oppressed Christians.

Colombia

In Colombia, the novitiate community wanted to have a special thought for what is happening in Chile during this week of prayer. The community observed the week of prayer through the celebration of the Way of the Cross in a special way for reparation for the outrages committed against God by those who use violence to defend their ideologies. They prayed not only for all persecuted Christians in Chile, but also for the conversion of the persecutors.

South Korea

The Trinitarian Community of the Fathers of South Korea and the Trinitarian laity united to celebrate the week of prayer for the persecuted Christians. In this context, they experienced a strong feeling of union with all the members of the Order who celebrated this week of prayer. They also wanted to express solidarity with all our brothers and sisters who suffer because of their faith in Christ.

Saints Cosmas and Damian (Italy)

A week of prayer for the persecuted Christians was observed at the Parish of St. Antony of Paduva, Campomaggiore, Saints Cosmas and Damian. Gabon

The week of prayer for persecuted Christians was strongly marked by the events in the Republic of Gabon (Central Africa), in which some areas saw our religious in the forefront. The Trinitarian family in Gabon from its SIT-Africa team lived this week together with the novena requested by the Episcopal Conference as spiritual preparation for the reopening of the Churches on October 25, 2020. For your information, all churches in Gabon have been closed since the first lock down imposed in most countries in March-April. In fact, under the pretext of the law and the search for the welfare of the people in front of Covid-19, the Gabonese government has imposed unjust and unjustifiable restrictions (in the empirical reality of what is lived in Gabon), which make the practice of the Christian faith practically impossible, to the point of prohibiting the celebration of the Eucharist with communion. Moreover, taking many other drastic measures that have aroused the indignation of those responsible for all religious denominations, in particular the Gabonese Episcopal Conference.

Favoring in fact, the emergence of a sense of conflict government-churches. It talks of prisoners including priests, pastors and Christian faithful. SIT-Africa" invites all the communities of the Trinitarian family to pay special attention to Gabon.

Brazil

On October 21, 2020, during the week of prayer for persecuted Christians, in Sao Paulo, Brazil, the friars and students of the Trinity, together with the laity of Our Lady of Fatima Parish, made the Way of the Cross for persecuted Christians in preparation for the Feast of Jesus Nazarene.

Trinitarian Sisters of Valence: Perpetual Professions

Sister Angela Michèle and Sister Anna took their perpetual vows last October 17, in the Church of Saint Peter in Montrouge, during the Mass presided over by Monsignor Philippe Marsset, Auxiliary Bishop of Paris. They were surrounded by many Christians: Trinitarian Associates, members of the educational family of Saint Isabella (the school and college of the Sisters of Paris), professors and students of the Catholic Institute of Paris, the parishioners of Saint Peter of Montrouge and also some homeless people who Sister Anna visited while she was in Paris. We join with our two sisters in repeating "ALL FOR THE GLORY OF THE HOLY TRINITY, ALL FOR HIS LOVE".

Saint Thomas in Formis (Italy): Admission to the Trinitarian laity

Ms. Eva Alwan Garrabrant from Peoria (USA) was admitted to the Trinitarian Laity on October 18, 2020, in the church of St. Thomas in Formis (Rome). She met the Trinitarian family in Miami (USA) during the conference "The Faces of Christian Persecution" in November 2019. In fact, at the urging of Mrs. Dolla Batour el-Zoghby, President of the Trinitarian Laity in Italy, a group of 16 lay Trinitarian followers was born at the Maronite Catholic Church of St. Sharbel in Peoria, Illinois, of which Mrs. Eva is a member. After several meetings, Eva expressed her fervent desire to enter the laity at St. Thomas in Formis in Rome, Italy, where she felt a great spirituality and closeness to our Founder St. John de Matha. Her participation at the Conference of the Trinitarian Laity held in Rome from October 16 to 19 was the perfect occasion to be officially admitted to the Secular Trinitarian Order. Admission occurred during the Mass of Sunday, October 18, 2020, presided by the Minister General, Father Luigi Buccarello, at St. Thomas in Formis in Rome, Italy. Leaving Italy, she made the commitment to share her experience with the lay group of Peoria (USA).

Isernia (Italy): Diaconate Ordinations

On Saturday, October 24, 2020, the Missionary Province of Our Lady of Good Remedy of Madagascar, celebrated the diaconate ordinations of Br. Honoré Randriamalaza and Br. Marcelin Randriamampionona, during the Holy Mass presided by His Excellency Monsignor Camillo Cibotti, Bishop of the Diocese of Isernia-Venafro, in St. Joseph the Worker Parish, Isernia, with the laying on of hands and consecration prayer.

Since we are in a crucial period due to the pandemic, the numbers of participants in the ceremony were less. Thanks to the technology, many were able to follow the Holy Mass in streaming. May the intercession of Our Lady of Good Remedy, the prayer of our Trinitarian saints help our new deacons in their mission in the Order and in the Church.

Trinitarian Sisters of Valencia: Simple Professions

November 4, 2020 is a special date of grace and thanks for us, members of the great Trinitarian family. We celebrate, in fact, St. Felix de Valois, co-founder of the Order together with St. John De Matha and in parallel, the feast of the Founding Sisters of the Trinitarian Sisters of Valencia in the world. This year, this day, has had great importance in Antsirabe (Madagascar) where three novices: Sr Ange Léa, Sr Olga and Sr Lucie made their temporary professions in the Chapel of St. John Paul II. The biblical passage, the Letter to the Romans 5:20 inspired them to have a profound communion with God. On this bright day, they were exceptionally marked by the great divine love and mercy of God, in a joy that still inspires them to give thanks and to glorify the Most Holy Trinity and encourages them to offer themselves entirely to the Holy Trinity. Moreover, the warm welcome of the sisters in the Institute, which is part of their joy, has reassured them that, walking together, life in Jesus is the glory of the Most Holy Trinity.

Trinitarian Nuns of Andújar

From October 25 to November 5, the Diocese of Jaén (Spain) received the visit of a chalice recovered from one of the churches desecrated by the Islamic state in Iraq. A country that, like many others, has lived the horror of war and where Christians are being persecuted. In the chalice one can realize very significantly the impact of the bullet that passed through it. Providentially this chalice was found among the rubble and was once again consecrated to travel all over the world as a living sign of this Church that suffers like body of Christ. On November 4, the chalice was brought to the Churches of Andújar and was received with special veneration by the Trinitarian Nuns, where it is spent the night from November 3 to 4. On November 4th, celebration of St. Felix de Valois, after the Eucharist this chalice remained in the Church for about an hour to be venerated by all those who wanted to come closer.
